Dear Richard,

Have some more information for you. Enclosed you will find a copy of pedigree chart from Catherine Treece from Forest, VA. I have been in contact with her since I first started seriously on the Warner name. If you can make some connections with these names. So far I haven't been able to but I know there is something to it. Just have to figure it out.

I am also enclosing my family chart. I wasn't too clear on some of this information the last time I wrote to you so please excuse it.

I am having a lot of troubleon the Berger side of the family. Can't find out too much on that side, since there isn't anyone left to ask about it.

Sincerely,

Henrietta

P.S. Would you have any Knowledg of when or where Carl Schulte & my mom got married? I would also know when he died? Looked in the Tiffin lib. obits but nothing there. My sister told me on the phone today, she thought he died in some hospital, but she didn't know when or where.

Just got your letter, it seems you don't know any more info. on Carl S. than I do. Did find out he wrote to Hazel on Norwood in Toledo in 1923

Dear Mrs Donaldson:

I would have responded to your letter of October 10, 1993 earlier but I have been putting data into my Ultra notebook computer and wanted to include my Pedigree Chart. This one begins with my paternal great-great-grandfather Edward Cyranus Walton and shows that his grandmother was the wife of Asa Walton. I have been able to trace the Walton lineage to 1629 in Oxhill, Warwickshire, England. My Nathan Warner was the second husband of Mary Catharine Silvernail. I don't know her maiden name; she had eight children by her first husband. Have you read the 1884 History of Tuscarawas County, Ohio, p. 516? "November 6, 1799, Jonathan and Sarah Warner and Mary Everett, also Nathan and Anna Deliverance Warner with six children, and Asa and Catherine Walton arrived from Pennsylvania. On the 15th of the same month, Ezra and Magdalina Warner, with four children, and Mrs. Hannah Greer, a married sister, also reached their future home on the Tuscarawas. All these families settled as lessees on the Gnadenhutten tract, west of the river. They were members of the Moravian Church."

The page continues:"...children of Ezra and Maria Magdalina Warner, some of whom were born in Tusc Co: Samuel, Lydia, Ruth, Sarah, Maria Magdalina, and Hannah Susanna. All except Ruth moved farther west in 1811, and settled on the Mohican River....children of Nathan and Ann Deliverance Warner: Massa, Nathan, Peter, John, Moses, Joshua, Jesse, Anna and Susanna. The family of Asa and Catherine Walton consisted of six children--Mary, Joel, Jeremiah, Sarah, Elizabeth and Stephen, all born in this county." That was in Clay Twp.

My Edward Walton and his wife are buried in Sharon Cemetery, beside the Sharon Moravian Church near New Philadelphia, OH. Moravian Archives in Bethlehem, PA, might be helpful to you. Also, reference to VA might surprise you as it did me. At one time Virginia extended to the Mississippi. Last night while searching in our local private Jones Library for a friend, I discovered four Agner names in West Virginia. I had no idea these persons, born in VA, were in WV in the 1870 Federal Census records.

In case you are wondering, I was born in Mansfield, my father was born in Gilboa, Putnam Co, and his mother, Ellen Idell Gilbert, lived in Van Wert Co until she married in Wood Co at the home of her grandfather. Please keep in contact in case I learn more about the Warners.

Sincerely,

Eleanor Reece

Car-train crash kills Fostoria man

By Eric Davies
Staff Writer

HANCOCK COUNTY — A Fostoria man was pronounced dead at the scene after his pickup truck collided with a train on CR 109 near Arcadia at 12:51 p.m. Thursday.

Karl E. "Buz" Beachner III, 22, was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. William Kose, Hancock County coroner.

Beachner was driving west on CR 109 near CR 257, attempted to stop for the train, realized he could not stop in time, and attempted to beat the train. The train engine struck Beachner's truck, a Ford Ranger, and pushed it off the tracks, Deputy Thomas Blunk said.

The northeast-bound Norfolk and Southern Railroad train, which had two engines and approximately 85 cars, was moving about 55 miles per hour at the point of impact, Blunk stated.

Witnesses told the sheriff's department Beachner had been reaching for something within the compartment of the truck when he suddenly noticed the train approaching.

The train's engineer reported the driver of the truck then slammed on his brakes, realized he could not stop in time, and tried to drive across the tracks before the train entered the crossing.

The collision demolished the truck, and dislodged a number of parts from the vehicle, including part of the truck bed which became lodged to the front of the train engine.

Beachner was ejected from the vehicle in the collision.

Beachner's obituary is on Page 1f of today's edition.

Health care, retireme seen looming as popu

WASHINGTON (AP) — The needs of the baby boom generation threaten to engulf the nation's health care and retirement systems as the size of the elder population soars over the next 40 years, a private study said today.

The number of Americans 65 and older will hit 65 million by the year 2030, compared with 30 million senior citizens today, the Population Reference Bureau said in a report, "The Baby Boom — Entering Midlife."

Baby boomers in the next 20 years "will set the agenda for the nation's public policy choices in education, work-family policies, retirement programs and health care," said the report's authors, Leon Bouvier and Carol De Vita.

The key question will be "how d we invest in America's future" of re tiring baby boomers "while meetin the social, economic and politica needs of today?" they said.

Baby boomers are Americans bor from 1946 to 1964, so by 2030, th oldest surviving boomer will be 8 and the youngest 65.

By 2030 there will be more Amer icans over the age of 65 than unde the age of 18, according to demogra phers' estimates.

That reduces the number o younger working people available t support the growing number of retir ees.

Baby boomers are trying to "provide for their children, assist

Ohio's GOP congressmen backed Bush

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's newest members of Congress include alawmaker who faithfully followed the party line in 1991 and one who strayed at least a third of the time, according to a study.

Freshman Rep. John Boehner, R-Ohio, stayed close to the party line, Congressional Quarterly reported in its annual voting analysis.

When a majority of Republicans voted the same way, Boehner was part of the pack 96 percent of the time, CQ said.

Fellow freshman Rep. Charles Rep. Bob McEwen, 81 percent; and Rep. Michael Oxley, 80 percent.

Another Ohio Republican, Rep. Clarence Miller, has topped the list in years past but for 1991 supported the administration 78 percent of the time.

Ohio's delegation in Congress includes 11 Democrats and 10 Republicans, so the study predictably showed more opposition to Bush policies than support.

Dear Richard

It's sort of crazy how this worked out. I wrote the Putnam Co. geneolical society and they sent me three names that were working on the Werner family. Janet Herczeg was one of those names. Well it turned out she wasn't working on the same name but she contacted another person in her town of Mishawaka, IN. who knew someone that lived in Waterloo. Bingo that person knew of you. So that's how I contacted you.

Here are a few things I know. Clayton of, died 1-24-1934

Hazel Mary Beachner was first to Carl Schultz and he died. Don't know when. She married my father in 1925.

Audrey Margaret B married James Huston McReynolds in 8 Apr. 1921

Karl III died 3 Jan. 1991, truck he was driving hit by train. Will get the rest of info. for you.

Alice Ann married Wallace Ransom Van Camp in Nov.

Will try to get the rest to you as soon as I get it.

Where did the Werner family come from? You said they came Putnam Co. in 1866.

Found a Sherriff Diemer in Ottowa. Don't know if he's any relation or not.

Will write more when I find out.

Sincerely,

Henrietta Donaldson (over)

Were you related to Katherine Lafountain that married Joseph Werner?
